SPECIFIC Alexander DOLOZALEK

1. We could find no traces here on anyone named DOLOZALEK.

2. A Gunther DORING was repatriated to Germany from South America in 1942. A Gunther DORING of Schopfurderstrasse 10, Eberswalde, is listed as a friend of Helmut Heinz BERGK on the latter's PRQ forwarded here with EOLA-382 of 14 May 1953. EOLA-167 of 29 September 1952 and 3711 CRFG of 20 August 1952 both mention Guenther DOERING, born 20 November 1929, residing in Roentgenstrasse 23. This DOERING was apparently a member of the Volkspolizei, and was being considered for use in a KUKOWN project, since dropped.

3. There are a number of traces here on various persons named DOERING (fnn), but we did not compile these, as there is so little information available on Subject and we do not know how frequently he uses his alias.

3. Reference paragraph 2 stated that former Liaison chief BERGER had a chief deputy, SEHRING (sic) and a second deputy, believed to be SPASCH (sic), both of whom were scheduled for replacement around the turn of the year. Munich has been unable to identify these deputies, and we cannot distinguish from references whether or not any Berlin Base officer has met one or both of them. information which will assist in identifying the individuals who were involved in the CATUSK Berlin office. The Bureau of Munich will check on the individuals mentioned above.

4. JOSEPH WILHELM GERTH (born 1901, joined CATUSK by 1932) was deputy leader of a district office in Berlin from circa 1932-1937. His name appeared on 1937 Berlin emergency evacuation list, EGAB-1937, 30441, and 30442. Murphy's dossier on him was received in Headquarters via BGME-19341, 30 Aug 44.

5. JOSEPH WILHELM GERTH (born 1901, joined CATUSK by 1932) was a senior officer in Berlin for Dienststelle 78. His name also appeared on the Berlin emergency evacuation lists cited above.

6. No identifiable likely trace on EPASCHE, PASCHA, or PASHA.

7. MEIER (C) who had been SKILIAN's deputy for staybehind activities since 1938, recently told (C) that Berlin probably would be SKILIAN's last assignment before he retires, that SKILIAN had long occupied a rent-free government apartment and accepted the Berlin job for its monetary advantage. SKILIAN himself stated to (C) during early September 1968 that he had gone to (C) told him he felt he had been in one place long enough, and asked for assignment as liaison officer in Hannover because he had bought a lot in Celle and wanted to build a house there. As approval of Federal loans is so slow, however, he gave up that idea and accepted (C) offer of the job as CATUSK liaison chief in Berlin. (C) asked him to work in the Compound for a few months in preparation for his Berlin assignment. SKILIAN also told (C) that he would have to locate a furnished house since it would be impossible to move furniture to Berlin, and that he had to find something in an area where his daughter Hildegard (born 1936) could attend Gymnasium, which limited his residential area to about three districts in Berlin.
